A BUSINESS CHANGE

Walter Drysdale, proprietor of the Bank saloon, has disposed of an interest in his business to Carl Wilson, one of Tonopah's most popular young men, who has resided here and at Millers for the past eleven years. Mr. Wilson will at once take an active part in the affairs of this popular buffet. Old friends and new acquaintances are cordially welcomed. Adv. J15-1t

ADVANCE IN LEATHER

Owing to the advance in leather and other repairing material the shoemakers have been forced to raise their prices. The new price list will be found in every shoe shop in Tonopah without exception and will be effective on and after July 15th, 1916. Adv. J10-6t

ROUND MOUNTAIN
CLEARS $65,000

PRESIDENT GORDON SAYS THAT THERE IS NO REASON FOR QUOTATION DECLINE

In response to a request for a report on conditions at the mine, President L. D. Gordon of the Round Mountain company wired the San Francisco Chronicle a statement from Salt Lake for the benefit of stockholders. He declared that placer operations were proceeding as usual, that the original statement of probable earnings would prove to be conservative, and that the question of dividends would depend on results during the balance of the season. The stockholders have yielded more than $65,000 since February 20, and another cleanup is in progress. The larger percentage of values is in the bedrock, which has not been tapped as yet. President Gordon also stated that the Round Mountain water supply would be somewhat below expectations because of the extremely dry season. He had no explanation to offer for the recent decline, declaring that the management had not been selling, but had brought the stock up to 70 cents by its development of the property.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

"Her Great Price," a Metro wonder-play in five gripping acts, with Mabel Taliaferro, the pretty and charming young star, in the stellar role, will be the attraction at the Butler this evening. Miss Taliaferro is supported by an exceptionally strong cast, including Henry Mortimer, Richard Barbee, George Pauncefort, Ruth Chester, Jeanette Horton and William Cahill. There are many artistic settings and interesting scenes in this novel Metro production. The story itself is one of the most fascinating and surprising narratives ever shown on the screen. Until the final scenes are shown the spectators will not have the faintest idea of the outcome. It has a truly O. Henry finish and will prove a distinct innovation. Miss Taliaferro will be remembered by theater goers for her remarkable performance in "Polly of the Circus," "Springtime" and other notable stage productions. The preliminary reel will be a Paramount-Bray cartoon comedy, which is a feature in itself.
